Hello, playwright -

Congratulations! Your script has moved to the semifinal round of the Ashland New Plays Festival. It is one of 31 plays now being read by the 35 members of our Play Selection Committee. We plan to announce in June, 2010, the 4 plays which will receive staged readings at our festival which is scheduled for October 17 - 24, 2010, here in Ashland, Oregon.

We need to confirm the following information with you:

1) Has your submitted script been produced or published? Are there plans to produce or publish it prior to October 24, 2010? If so, it is not eligible for our festival.

2) If your play is selected are you able to travel to Ashland, Oregon, for the week of October 17 - 24, 2010? Lodging and a $500 stipend will provided to you. If you are not able to participate we cannot consider your script.

Please reply immediately if either of the above apply to you.

Thank you.
